Half-Term Home Learning Grid

Reading for Pleasure – 10+ minutes every night Read by yourself or with a grown up each day. Remember to fill in your Reading Record books and discuss your stories as much as possible with someone at home.	Research Find out as much as you can about how household objects or toys have changed over time. Talk to members of your family or visit a library to find out what things like televisions, phones and other household objects were like years ago!	Building and Making Build a Fairy House, Secret Castle or even a Pillow Fort inside or in your garden. Imagine you live there. What adventures might you have? Who might visit you? Write a story or create a storyboard of your adventures!
Spellings Lists and Dictations You will have a spelling list to take home each week. You could learn your spellings by writing each one in a sentence that a grown up dictates to you.	Cooking and Baking Make a meal, cook some cakes or biscuits or make anything of your choice with a grown up. You can take photos, draw pictures, write a recipe or write some sentences about what you did in your homework book.	Designing and Creating What would you have in your dream house? A slide instead of stairs? A swimming pool? A moat? A games room? Draw, write about or make a model of your dream house!
Maths Design a wallpaper for a house. Try to include lots of colours, repeating patterns and neatly drawn shapes.	Lend a Hand – A Random Act of Kindness! Support a family member, friend or neighbour with a task. Perhaps you could help to set the table for dinner or write a shopping list for a grown up. The possibilities are endless!	Music/Dance Do you play an instrument or enjoy singing or dancing? Write or draw pictures in your homework book about what you do or what you enjoy!
Sport/Being Active Do you play a sport or do an out-of-school club? Write or draw pictures in your homework book about what you do or what you enjoy! Think about how you are learning new and exciting skills and keeping healthy!	The Great Outdoors! Search for different types of house or home in the local area. Can you identify different types of houses? Can you find any homes that might belong to a family of animals? Write, draw or photograph your adventures and all of the things you discover!	Be Imaginative! Can you think of any other creative, imaginative and fun activities that are related to our topic? Write, draw or photograph your activities and the things that you discover and learn!

Complete the essential activities (the ones that are highlighted) every week and choose three or more others to complete each half term.
